

We now know THREE types of participle name	look for	translate present participle, active	-ns/-nt- + Group III endings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • labora-ns • labora-nt-es 	---ing work- ing perfect participle, passive nb: with a passive, you often get a/ab + noun in abl = by X	-t-us/a/um Group II/I/II endings -s-us/a/um Group II/I/II endings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • moni-t-us • mis-s-us a domino	(having been) ---ed (having been) warn-ed (having been) sent by the master perfect participle, deponent (looks passive, is actually active)	-t-us/a/um Group II/I/II endings -s-us/a/um Group II/I/II endings <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • locu-t-us • ingres-s-us 	having ---ed having sai-d/spoken having enter-ed