

POST-18 PLANNING AND PREPARATION

University Open Days... ARE BACK!

Some universities are beginning to open their doors to in person visits once again (*subject to Government guidance). You will be required to book the visits directly with the universities and there will be specific rules associated with each one, so you should make sure that you read the details carefully. One of the best websites to use when looking is Opendays.com. Here are just a few to get you started:

Royal Holloway University of London

Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences - Saturday 19 June or Sunday 27 June 9am-2pm

For students interested in subjects including Classics, Drama, Theatre and Dance, Economics, English, History, Languages, Literatures and Cultures, Law, Media Arts, Music, Philosophy, Politics and International Relations or Social Sciences. Book your place here.

Business Management and Science - Sunday 20 June or Saturday 26 June 9am-2pm

For students interested in subjects including Biological Sciences, Business and Management, Criminology, Computer Science, Earth Sciences, Electronic Engineering, Geography, Mathematics, Physics and Psychology. Book your place here.

University of Birmingham - Friday 2 July or Saturday 3 July 9am-4pm

Hear first-hand from current students and teaching staff about living and learning in Birmingham. Book your place here.

University of Roehampton - Saturday 10th July

Business & Life Sciences 9am-12pm - can be booked here.

Education, Social Sciences & Psychology 11.30am-2.30pm - can be booked here.

Arts & Humanities 2pm-5pm - can be booked here.

This on-campus undergraduate open day gives students the opportunity to discover the beautiful parkland campus and put questions to academics, support teams and current students.

The event itineraries will include:

Subject sessions ~ Parents' talks ~ Campus tours ~ Library tours ~ Student life fair with student support teams

An increasing number of Year 12 students are signing up for virtual work experience with SPRINGPOD and the feedback is extremely positive so far.

We would encourage students to look at the website to see what they have on offer as programmes are being added frequently and you might find something there that you had never thought of doing before! You can earn certificates and build a portfolio of work that will make your personal statement and CV stand out.

Choose from Engineering, Teaching, Journalism, Social Media Marketing, Business Management, Sustainability, Software Development, Graphic Design, TV & Film, Politics, Psychology, Law, Architecture, Accountancy, Banking or with specific companies such as Airbus, Fujitsu and Siemens and more.

You can find out more and apply for individual programmes here.

Charles Russell Speechlys

Insight to Law - Wednesday 16th June 5pm - 6pm

- An insight to law, the different departments and areas of work (including non-law routes)
- Breakout rooms with solicitors talking about different areas of law
- Client relationships and winning new business
- Workshops & interactive sessions
- Summer Work Experience opportunities

Spaces are limited, so students are encouraged to book soon, you can apply here.

More to follow next week!
