23rd June, 2021

Dear Parents and Carers,

Further to our previous letter we are now in a position to confirm the arrangements for the upcoming Induction Day on Wednesday 30th June. In order to comply with new DfE guidelines we have adapted our plans and are looking forward to inviting students through our doors to get a feel for what “big school” is really like.

Each visit will last for two hours, and we will aim to provide a snapshot of “A Day as a County Student”. This will involve a short welcome from our Head Teacher, a tour of the school, a typical County lesson, and the chance to meet and hear from our students about their experiences of starting with us.

Please see below the timings of arrival and departure for your child’s school. All primary schools have been informed of these. Should you have any questions about when your child should leave or return to their primary school, please contact their school directly.

	Timings	School
Session 1	9.00am-11.00am	Queen Eleanor’s
Session 2	9.45am-11.45am	Holy Trinity
Session 3	10.30am-12.30pm	Northmead, Guildford Grove and Boxgrove
Session 4	11.15am-1.15pm	Sandfield
Session 5	12.45pm-2.45pm	Tillingbourne and St Josephs
Session 6	1.15pm-3.15pm	All other schools

To assist with the smooth running of the day, we ask parents and carers to be prompt with the arrival times and collecting, all from the front of the school. We are more than happy for students to wear and bring masks with them and will expect students to hand sanitise and keep socially distanced from other students during the day.

We will give final instructions for the Induction Day at our Welcome Evening for new parents, which will take place over Zoom at 6pm the night before, on Tuesday 29th June.
